Master of Theology Modular Program

The first three classes include:

Apologetics of Cornelius Van Til

taught by Dr. K. Scott Oliphint

August 25th-29th 2014

Life and Thought of Martin Luther

taught by Dr. Carl Trueman

January 26th-30th 2015

Hermeneutical Foundations

taught by Dr. Vern Poythress

June 22nd-26th 2015

Future classes include:

N.T. use of the O.T. - Dr. Beale

Theology of Romans - Dr. Tipton

The Gospel of Matthew - Dr. Crowe

Exegesis of Ezekiel - Dr. Duguid

Theology of Adoption - Dr. Garner

Scottish Presbyterianism - Dr. Trueman

Philosophy for Theologians - Dr. Oliphint

Theodicy - Dr. Edgar

New Testament Theology - Dr. Beale

History of Eschatology - Dr. Jue

The Th.M. program is designed to increase the students knowledge of a major field of theological learning, furthering preparation for ministry, or more advanced graduate study. The Modular component allows students to complete the necessary course work by enrolling in week long classes offered three times a year. Included in the total cost is housing, local transportation (not including an airline ticket to or from Philadelphia), and food which is provided by Westminster.

	1 module	3 modules	6 modules
Housing, Transport, & Food	$500	$1500	$3000
Tuition	$2,900	$8,700	$17,400
Total	$3400	$10,200	$20,400

How to Apply:

To apply to the Th.M. Modular program visit the Westminster website where you can apply online. Afterwards, our admissions team will contact you with further instructions.

Program Length:

	Year 1			Year 2			Year 3			Year 4
	Aug	Jan	Jun	Aug	Jan	Jun	Aug	Jan	Jun	Aug	Jan	Jun
3 Year Track	1	1	1	1	1	1 THP	THP	THE	THE
4 Year Track	1		1	1		1	1 THP	THP	1 THE	1 THE	THE

THP = Thesis Proposal; THE = Thesis; 1 = module